“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.”

-First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States

Joseph W. Shoquist Freedom of the Press Award

The SIPA Freedom of the Press Award was initiated in 1989 to recognize an adviser or staff for exercising First Amendment rights on the high school level.

The award will be given periodically when someone makes a strong stand for scholastic journalism. To nominate individuals or staffs for the award, please complete the form below.

Winners must be present at the 2020 SIPA Convention.
